

The East Oak Lane Paper

OLCAA IS WORKING FOR YOU

By Carmen Jimenez—Editor

Your community organization has been working feverously on Housing and Zoning and L&I issues in our community. As this organization becomes aware of these matters, they are assigned to the appropriate committee to start dealing with the problem. However, the one weak link that the organization experiences is lack of community participation within the committees and attendance at hearings to fight variances to properties.

Your community organization is in need of community participation to attend hearings at a moment's notice. We need to develop a phone list together with an email list to contact you when we need participants at zoning hearings. We have developed a reputable reputation with the Zoning Board, License and Inspection and other city agencies. Through OLCAA they have seen the dedication and importance that East Oak Lane is to its residents in preserving it as a beautiful, quiet, safe and green neighborhood.

Therefore, this is a call to all East Oak Lane residence, new and old to: 1. Become a member of OLCAA. 2. Join any committee where your organizational strengths can be utilized. 3. Provide us with your telephone and email address. 4. Attend zoning hearings. 5. Attend community events sponsored by OLCAA and our other community organizations.

We hope that you will read the articles and understand what OLCAA represents. Hopefully, you will want to help this organization to keep and improve our beautiful community.

Please contact us via the Hotline at 215-224-2777, or through the website at www.eastoaklane.org. Enjoy your newsletter and we look forward to hearing from you!

Hands working together build a vibrant community!

Are you a New Neighbor, Welcome

Let us know who you are by calling the Hotline at 215-224-2777 or directly through the website at www.eastoaklane.org and be part of the energy of East Oak Lane.

Leave your name, address and telephone contact number on the Hotline or relay this information via the website by email so that you can be advised to attend our "new neighbors gathering."

You community association looks forward to welcoming you to the neighbor.

OLCAA Accomplishments and East Oak Lane Liquor and Nuisance Task Force

By Sharon W. Losier—President of OLCAA

OLCAA has dealt with 41 zoning issues affecting East Oak Lane within the past two years. These zoning issues required the hard work of many board members, meeting with property owners, organizing people to attend zoning hearings, and presenting our case to the zoning board in an objective and professional manner.

All these issues and concerns have been the impetus for forming committees to deal with them. These committees are Housing and Zoning, Beautification, Quality of Life and Safety and Town Watch.

In order for OLCAA to continue all its good works to keep our community free of nuisances and zoning issues, we need your help in identifying the problems by keeping your eyes and ears open and contacting us with this information on the Hotline at 215-224-2777 or via the website at www.eastoaklane.org.

The East Oak Lane Liquor and Nuisance Task Force was formed approximately three years ago to address ongoing quality of life and safety issues concerning the vicinity of East Oak Lane. Regularly held meetings are attended by representatives from our City Agencies (Licenses & Inspection, the District Attorney's Office, Air & Noise Management) as well as Councilwoman Marian Tasco, State Representative Dwight Evans, the 35th Police District, the Sturgis Recreation Advisory Council, the Police Advisory Council, the East Oak Lane Business Association, OLCAA along with its newest member, SEPTA.

Focused meetings are led by Eagle Eye Solutions, an independent entity that documents area concerns, assigns responsibility for actions, and follow up.

The East Oak Lane Task Force has been highly successful in its ability to quickly and effectively shut down illegal speak-easies, bring businesses into compliance, reduce crime in targeted areas, improve quality of life through noise reduction and better property maintenance, remove illegal vendors, and deter property owners from illegally converting single-family homes to multi-family dwellings.

We will continue working for you and ask that you help us by becoming a member and volunteer on the various committees as well as attend zoning hearing.

Transit Worker's Union Awards $5,000 Grant to Beautification Committee

By Kelly McShain Tyree—Chair of Beautification Committee

The Beautification Committee of OLCAA is the recipient of a very generous grant by the Transit Workers Union Local 234 and their leadership to assist in our continued efforts to bring beauty and vitality to our community. Union representative and neighbor, Jim McBride, awarded this $5,000 gift to OLCAA at a small celebration held to thank them for their donation. The grant will be used over the next year to commission 3 additional "Welcome to East Oak Lane" signs to be installed at Gateways around the neighborhood. The proposed signs include: Cheltenham Avenue & N. 5th St., N. 11th St. at Godfrey Avenue, and 70th Ave. at Cheltenham Avenue. The grant will also fund the cleaning and painting of the Cheltenham Avenue Bridge at N. 10th St., where a mural will be added by East Oak Lane Artists and Tyler School of Art alumna, Katrina Mortorff and Austin Lee. Other projects will be to clean and green the Cheltenham Avenue Bridge underpass, as well as the curb line in front of "The Great Wall of East Oak Lane" on Godfrey Avenue. Volunteers to help implement these projects are welcome! We are seeking neighbors to "adopt a spot" to help maintain an attractive environment throughout the neighborhood. Please contact the OLCAA Hotline if you would like to help plant and maintain a specific area near you.

OLCAA Supports Protection of Single Family Dwellings

We are trying to identify all Block Captains or Block Representatives in East Oak Lane.

We would like to have your input on how we can make the Residents and Businesses in our area safe. Contacts: David Weston @ dcweston001@aol.com 215-424-2993 or Bernadette Tanksley btanksley@juno.com.

OLCAA supports the protection of single family homes for residential living.

We encourage development of our commercial corridor for anyone who is interested in starting a new business in our community and welcome new businesses owners.

If you have a land use question (this means how the house is zoned for use by the City), please contact OLCAA on the Hotline at 215-224-2777 or on the website at www.eastoaklane.org or contact our Councilwoman Marion Tasco's office at 215-686-3454 or 3455 or by fax at 215-686-1938.

Trash and Leaf Collection

Here is information supplied by the City of Philadelphia on Trash and Leaf Collection that we hope you will find helpful.

Trash

“Put out trash in proper containers. Place all trash in personal trashcans or sealed plastic bags, filled only to the 40-pound limit. Securely tie wood scraps, and other loose items into bundles no more than four feet long and two feet thick. NOTE: Cardboard boxes may never be used as containers for trash/recycling, regardless of who collects it!

Newspapers and flattened cardboard boxes along with steel and aluminum cans, glass jars and bottles, paper and #1 and #2 plastics should be placed out as recycling.”

Leaf Collection

“The City no longer provides mechanical leaf collection service. This includes leaf blowers, mechanical sweepers and vacuums. Beginning in the fall of 2009, leaves must be placed out in biodegradable brown paper bags alongside regular rubbish collections. Bagged leaves will be separated and composted. By using biodegradable bags, you will help crews work more easily identify your bags as leaves. This helps to eliminate the extensive process of ripping open, dumping, and disposing of plastic bags. Leaves set out in other bags or containers may be collected as rubbish. Landscapers and leaf cleaning services should remove and dispose of leaves privately.”

If you would like more information on this subject, you can go to the City’s website: www.phila.gov.

Philadelphia’s Anti-Drug Paraphernalia Ordinance

The City of Philadelphia enacted the Anti-Drug Paraphernalia Ordinance No. 060345-AAA on January 23, 2007. It was later amended as follows:

1. PROHIBITION ON SALE OF “BLUNTS” WHERE SELLER KNOWS INTENT OF BUYER IS TO INGEST DRUGS.

The Court ruled that Section 9-

629(1) is still good law.

This section expanded the state’s definition of drug paraphernalia to include “blunts” and prohibits the sale of “blunts” by anyone “where the seller knows, or under the circumstances reasonably should know” that it would be used to ingest drugs.

2. NO SALES OF DRUG PARAPHERNALIA WITHIN 500 FT OF A

“Prohibition on sale of “Blunts”

SCHOOL, CHURCH, REC CENTER, DAY CARE CENTER, OR COMMUNITY CENTER.

The Court upheld Section 9-629 (2) and ruled that Philadelphia can prohibit all sales of drug paraphernalia within 500 ft as stated above, whether or not the seller knows or should know that the items will be used to ingest drugs.

News from Oak Lane Presbyterian Church

The Oak Lane Presbyterian Church (OLPC) welcomed two new staff members in July – Ouida Davis and Melody Wright. Ouida (pronounced “wee’-da) Davis is our new Administrative Assistant, replacing Alison Winans, who relocated to Maryland; and Melody Wright, an accomplished dancer and communicator, OLPC member and East Oak Lane resident, is the new Director of the Oak Lane Cultural Arts Program. Ouida is in the church office Monday through Friday from 9:30 AM to 1:30 PM, and she and Melody can both be reached at 215-424-4446.

Please Volunteer to Plant Trees

By Charles Philips, Chair Tree Tenders Committee

Oak Lane Tree Tenders will plant over 30 trees on Saturday, November 21, 2009. Would you like to help? No experience needed! Dress warmly in old clothes, sturdy shoes, and bring work gloves. We will plant rain or shine. Experienced Tree Tenders will guide you through digging the proper size hole, minimal pruning, staking and tying the tree, watering and mulching. Meet at 6605 Lawnton Ave (19126) at 8:45 am for coffee and orientation. The tree planting lasts the morning, and workers are invited back for lunch. Complimentary Tree Tender T-shirts are given to participants who want them.

In a departure from previous practice, we are also asking tree recipients to help with tree planting if they can. There are several reasons for this. First, it gives the recipient a better appreciation for the tree and allows instruction on care. Another reason is to add planting power. (Notice how I avoided the manpower/womanpower/personpower mess.) In the 13 years Oak Lane Tree Tenders have been working, a number of members have marched into their 80's and not as able to plant as they once were. We could use some more diggers!

For further information call Charlie Philips at 215-924-1722.

Thanks for your help.

Historic Preservation By Marita Krivda Poxon

David S. Traub AIA, well known architect and historic preservationist, has taken a great interest in our East Oak Lane architecture and sites. He has listed one of our modern homes on his SAVE OUR SITES (SOS) 10 most endangered sites in Philadelphia.

The modern home is at 514 West Godfrey Avenue. It is considered the best example of Bauhaus architecture in Philadelphia. On the site it says: Bauhaus-styled house, 514 West Godfrey Ave. in East Oak Lane. Built about 1930. Architect unknown. Vacant and deteriorating.

The second endangered site on his 2009 SOS list is the DeBenneville Burial Ground.

DeBenneville Burial Ground, Old York

Road and Green Lane. 18th century cemetery, resting place of British soldiers and officers killed in the War of Independence. Relatively unknown, uncelebrated, and in need of restoration.

The web site for his organization is:

<http://www.saveoursites.org/>

David Traub has contacted Marita Krivda Poxon of the Friends of the Oak Lane Library. David Traub will give a benefit lecture series on Oak Lane Architecture early in 2010 at the Oak Lane Library.

John J. Di Benedetto's study of Oak Lane Architecture has become available again.

The publication is:

Oak Lane: A Study of Urban Growth & Architectural Development 1876-1976. (1976: 144 pp. Drexel University Thesis)

The author has agreed to make copies of this important study. The cost for a reproduction is $36. If you want this important publication, contact the author at: 215-285-9040 or write to him: 201 Old York Road, Jenkintown, PA 19046. John Di Benedetto has agreed to be part of the Library's 2010 Lecture series on Oak Lane Architecture.

Welcome to our new Ellwood Principal Ms. Marilyn Quarterman, M.Ed.

The East Oak Lane Community wishes to welcome the Ellwood Elementary School's new principal Ms. Marilyn Quarterman, M.Ed., and she assumed the position on August 1, 2009.

Ms. Quarterman has been busy meeting with the Branch Head of Oak Lane Library and the Friends of Oak Lane Library.

Ms. Quarterman will also formally meet with OLCAA at our October Board Meeting. She has already met with some of the members of OLCAA's Tree Tenders.

Ms. Quarterman would like parent involvement and that from the community organizations. She can be reached at 215-276-5268. Welcome!

Neighbors Inspire One Another

By Kelly McShain Tyree—Chair of Beautification Committee

Strolling down Verbena on the way to the Melrose Park Train Station, a wonderful surprise awaits at the intersection of 69th Avenue: a beautiful perennial oasis, creatively sculpted into the embankment by homeowners, Peggy and John Weston. Their love affair with flowers began over 20 years ago in this spot and has grown to include not only an ever blooming array of flowers, but an arbor covered in heirloom grapevines that have moved with the family for 3 generations all the way from South Carolina. Their garden also features a new pond, which was a gift from their sons for Father's Day. Their oasis has not only given their own family much pleasure over the years, but it has also created an infectious climate with new gardeners sprouting up all along this small stretch of 69th Avenue. Further down the block neighbors, Pete and Jacquie Frazier Lyde, dove into the gardening fray when they moved to East Oak Lane 16 years ago. Inspired by the beauty of the Weston garden, Pete began planting and has created an equally lovely and unique garden as well. He's "a fan of immediate gratification," so he has artfully combined many annuals with his perennials, and has included a container garden for his hardscape areas. A wonderful Hydrangea tree arches over his display, and he finds much peace, solace and beauty in his daily gardening. Pete has also taken the reins in soliciting other neighbors to join them.

When a new neighbor, Alex Shaw, moved into the adjacent property, it was looking forlorn and unloved- Pete volunteered to help. "No thanks, I'll get to it," the neighbor said. Sure enough he did! Never having gardened before, Alex started experimenting and now has a beautiful display. All along this strip of 69th Avenue, the results of neighbor's collective work are breathtaking with an ever-evolving landscape from the early Spring deep into the Fall. The hillside plots gracefully slope up to the main entrances of the row homes and in spite of the varying designs of each garden, there is a wonderful overall unity as the gardens highlight both the unified handsome architecture of the avenue, as well as the unique personalities of the individual homeowners. On the way to the train, be sure to take a peek. It's an inspiring sight to see!

2009 City Garden Contest By T. M. Poxon-President of Friends of Oak Lane Library

Hello. As you know, at the instigation of Judy Lustig, Michael Poxon entered the Oak Lane Library landscaping efforts of the Oak Lane Tree Tenders and the Friends of the Oak Lane Library in the City Garden Contest. The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society has sent a letter of Congratulations to me. Our Community Flower garden has been awarded 3rd prize in the 2009 City Gardens Contest. Thanks to all who contributed their time and labor to this project. You are all to be congratulated. There will be an awards ceremony at the 2010 Flower Show on Tuesday March 2, 2010. Invitations will be mailed after the first of the year.

The Pennsylvania Horticultural Society is assembling a photo display of all winning gardens for display. Congratulations again and please plan on joining PHS and celebrating with your fellow gardeners.

Once again OUR East Oak Lane gets the recognition it deserves....and to all who created and maintained the library gardens, YOU did good!

Lets also tip our hats to Judy Lustig and TJ Scully who won 2nd place in the same

PHS City Gardens Contest for their own wonderful garden (combination flower and vegetable)...no easy feat considering that this is a city-wide cooperation.

Congratulations!

SEPTA and OLCAA- Forging a Partnership

By Kelly McShain Tyree

East Oak Lane has always been a wonderful bedroom community and has been blessed with great access to the City and Suburbs of Philadelphia through the SEPTA transit system. Over the years, OLCAA has been fielding complaints by commuters as to the physical conditions and safety concerns of our nearest transit hubs such as: Melrose Park Train Station, Fern Rock Subway Station, Broad & 66th Avenue, as well as "Broad and Olney." Through the efforts of East Oak Lane Town Watch, Tree Tenders, Quality of Life, and the Beautification Committees, we have been working to forge a greater partnership with SEPTA by helping to beautify and green the areas- but we are now asking for better policing, and more consistent property maintenance by SEPTA.

OLCAA has been meeting with SEPTA representatives regarding improving quality of life and safety concerns- as a result, the beautifully restored and landscaped Melrose Park Train Station will be adding more lighting along the Philadelphia entrances to the station (Verbena and Franklin Streets), and security cameras are being considered. SEPTA Police have increased patrolling around the remote areas of the station, and they will also begin to patrol deeper into the residential areas surrounding Fern Rock Station. Working in conjunction with SEPTA and our friends at the 35th Police District, we hope to create a more secure and attractive environment. SEPTA Police Captain, John Wenke, has asked us to call them directly with any concerns so that they have a better understanding of where and how to monitor their transit areas. If you wish to report a disturbance, please call: 215-580-7860 and contact the OLCAA Hotline 215-224-2777 so that OLCAA can follow-up with your concerns.

2009 Oak Lane Day By Evelyn Jones—Event Committee Chair

Another exciting and successful Oak Lane Day was had by all. Even a couple of surprise downpours did not hinder the celebration of our annual Oak Lane Day festivity this past June. Everyone had the opportunity to clean out their garage and attic and participate in our flea market that day. Thanks to 1-800-GOTJUNK, who generously donated a truck so that participants did not have to lug back home their treasures at the end of day.

The children seemed to have had the most fun of all. Thanks to the generous donation of one of our new businesses at 8th and Oak Lane, "KANDY 4 DAYS", in conjunction with "HAIR STUDIO 712." They provided free of charge pop corn, water ice and moon bounce.

We held a great East Oak Lane Idol contest and the winner was Kayla Faust. We also had other activities that made the day memorable and fun for the children.

The food continues to get better every year, and this year was no exception. We are fortunate to have such a multi-cultural community who are willing to share their ethnic cuisine on Oak Lane Day. A special thanks goes out to Judy Becker, whose calls for donations from the neighbors and local businesses is heard loud and clear and the donors respond generously.

We would also like to sincerely thank the following organizations and businesses for their continuous generosity and overwhelming support:

1-800-GOTJUNK ♦ Century21 (5th & Cheltenham) ♦ City of Philadelphia Streets Department ♦ Councilwoman Marian Tasco and her Staff ♦ Dunkin Donuts ♦ Grace Point Church ♦ Hair Studio 712 ♦ H-Mart ♦ Holy Trinity Byzantine Catholic Church ♦ Kandy 4 Days ♦ Continued on Pg. 9

2009 Oak Lane Day (Continued)

Oak Lane Diner ♦ Oak Lane Presbyterian Church ♦ Paris Baguette (5th St) ♦ Pepsi Pizza Hut ♦ ShopRite ♦ Soho Café ♦ Under the Oak Café.

We are blessed that Father Austin and the congregation from Holy Trinity Byzantine Catholic Church has continued to generously donate their facility for our Oak Lane Day celebration.

We hope that the next Oak Lane Day will be bigger and even better with your continued support and participation.

If you are interested in participating in Oak Lane Day 2010, please contact us on the Hotline at 215-224-2777 or via the website www.eastoaklane.org under the Contact Us tab via email to Evelyn Jones, Events Chairperson.

We would like to thank all the volunteers and East Oak Lane neighbors for your continued support. This makes our East Oak Lane community a great place to live, learn and serve.
